

Operation “Godley Head”: Recce Report

A small group from the organising committee, and a member of the Godley Head Trust, meet at Godley Head on Saturday 27 June, to conduct a detailed recce for the visit, which is part of the Artillery Association Reunion/AGM over the period 13-15 November 15.

Outline of planned visit:

- Walk or bus to Godley Head.
- Spend about 2 hours at Godley Head, which will include:
 - Hands on play with Artillery (L5 & M101A1 Howitzer) and other military equipment.
 - Short historic brief to overview Christchurch coastal defences and Godley Head position.
 - Battery Position site visit.
- All bus back to the RSA

For details of the weekend and registration details, go to:

<http://www.rnzaa.org.nz/the-rnza-association/membership/register-for-the-reunion>

(Padre, Dave Bahler, note brilliant clear weather depicted in all photos. Please organise the same weather for weekend 13-15 November 15.)

Photos:

At the Battery Position

View from Godley Head back towards New Brighton/Christchurch.

Sorting out the detailed plan (L to R: Wayne Searle, Mike Burke, Skin Frances and Craig Ruane).

The walk from Taylors Mistake to Godley Head, a nice 60-75 minute stroll, lunch included on the walk.

